Tom Windus focuses his practice primarily in the area of surety and construction law. Tom has represented surety and construction clients for over thirty years in a variety of disputes involving litigation in both state and federal courts. Tom has extensive experience in state and federal courts involving trials as well as arbitration and mediation. Tom's undergraduate accounting degree gives him the ability help clients in the analysis of claims involving breach of contract, payment disputes, delay and disruption, labor productivity, contract interpretation and differing site conditions. Tom's practice has also involved representing commercial and surety clients in bankruptcy proceedings.
