Gurpreet K. Dhatt is a litigator whose practice primarily focuses on commercial disputes and construction matters. She assists clients at the outset of a matter to proactively manage pre-litigation disputes and cases, offering steadfast support and representation all the way through the final outcome. Gurpreet has experience drafting and arguing motions, conducting legal research and handling all aspects of discovery.

Prior to joining Carney Badley Spellman, Gurpreet worked at an AmLaw 100 firm, and business litigation firms in Portland and Spokane. She earned her J.D. from Gonzaga University School of Law and holds a B.A. in Political Science from Washington State University. She is admitted to practice in Washington, Oregon, and Idaho.

Originally from Kent, Washington, Gurpreet is thrilled to return to the community she was raised in. After spending time building her career in Eastern Washington and the Portland area, she is excited to contribute to and serve the local community.

Outside of the law, Gurpreet enjoys spending time with her family, friends and cats.
